3. X Education has a period of 2 months every year during which they hire some interns. The sales team, in particular, has around 10 interns allotted to them. So during this phase, they wish to make the lead conversion more aggressive. So they want almost all of the potential leads (i.e. the customers who have been predicted as 1 by the model) to be converted and hence, want to make phone calls to as much of such people as possible. Suggest a good strategy they should employ at this stage.

Sol - They should speak to the candidate in such a way, they should highlight the advantages of taking the course professionally either that it helps for a promotion in current position or transition to a new role. The interns should aggressively call the possible leads to convert the leads successfully.

4. Similarly, at times, the company reaches its target for a quarter before the deadline. During this time, the company wants the sales team to focus on some new work as well. So during this time, the company's aim is to not make phone calls unless it's extremely necessary, i.e. they want to minimize the rate of useless phone calls. Suggest a strategy they should employ at this stage.

Sol - At that time, they should focus on the email campaign and social media campaigns to advertise and give information on the courses offered by the company and track the views and concentrate on the enquiries.
